SIR,

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No.H.850/30 dated 7th July 1931 together with the connected records received from the -- Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, in re. a puduvat loan granted -- from the funds of the Sri Agasthesvaraswami temple at Tirumakudlu, I have the honor to state as follows:-

On 10th May 1915 a loan of Rs.300/- was given to Messrs.T. Krishna Rao and T.Venkatanaraniah, Jodidars of Kongahalli village, T. Narasipur Taluk from the puduvat funds of the Sri Agasthesvaraswami -- Temple on the security of their hissa of the jodi village and also their share of toddy revenue of the village, on the condition of its being repaid within 15 years. They defaulted in the payment of interest as well as the principal. A sum of Rs.218-4-5 has so far been recovered towards interest out of the Toddy Revenue, and a balance of Rs.118-11-7 on account of interest as also the principal are still due. It is -- reported that the value of the debtors' property is estimated at only about Rs.300/- and that they do not possess any other property to be proceeded against.

One Mr.Narayana Sastry of Mysore has come forward with an -- offer to pay up the principal with a view to oblige his friend T.Venkatanaraniah, provided the balance of interest is waived. The Deputy Commissioner agreeing with the local officers, recommends the acceptance of the offer, waiving the claim for the balance of the interest, in -- view of the fact that a sum nearly equal to the principal has already been recovered by way of interest and as, in his opinion, taking legal legal action against the debtors may not prove more advantageous.

In the above circumstances, I request that sanction of -- Government may kindly be obtained for waiving the balance of interest due on the loan and to accept the offer of Mr.Narayana --- Sastry as this course appears to be the best in the interests of the temple.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Re:- Recovery of puduvat amount due to Sri Agastheswara swami templat Tirumakudlu.

I have the honor to state that T.Krishna Rao and another G.Narayana Sastry, Jodidars of Konagahalli village, T.Narasipur taluk, obtained a loan of Rs.300/- on 10-5-1915 from the puduvat funds of the Sri Agastheswaraswami temple at Thirmakudlu.

As they became defaulters in repayment of the amount lent with interest, the Public Prosecutor, who was consulted in the matter stated that a sum of Rs.90/- would be required towards the cost of filing a suit.

The interest on the amount lent aggregates to Rs. 337-0-0 out of which Rs.218-4-5 has been recovered from the parties and the balance of Rs.118-11-7 together with the principal amount of Rs.300/- is due to the temple. Mr. Krishna Rao does not own sufficient properties by the sale of which the entire amount due can be realised. G.Narayana Sastri has petitioned atating that in order to oblige his friend, he had to pay heavily, that he will pay up the parincipal amount of Rs.300/- and that the balance of Rs-118-11-7 demanded may kindly be waived.

4. The local officers report that as the major portion of the interest, nearly equal to the ~~principal~~ principal amount has been paid already the prayer of G.Narayana Sastri is reasonable and it may kindly be sanctioned.

5. I request that sanction may kindly be accorded to waive the balance of interest namely Rs.118-11-7.

6. The connected file of papers is enclosed herewith.
